NORTH CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

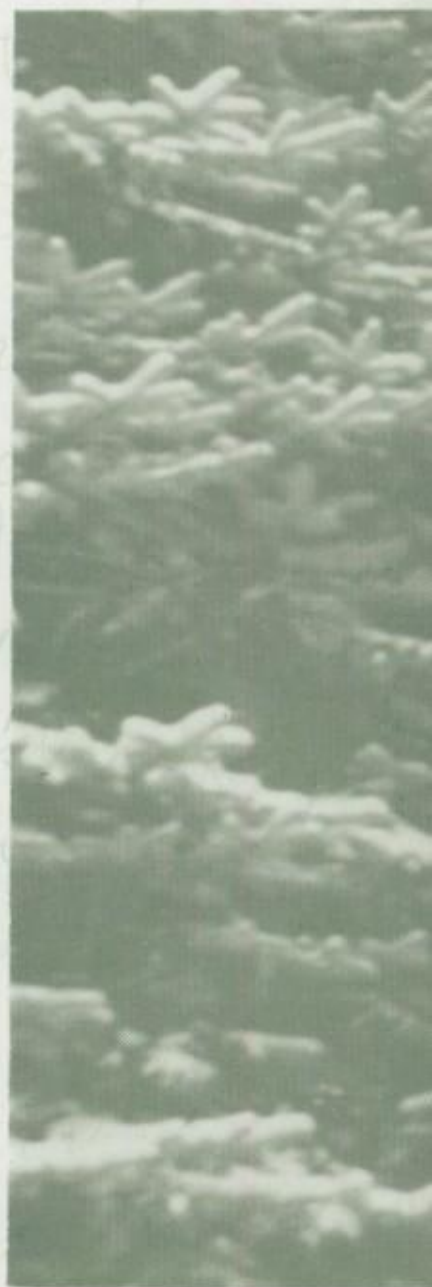

FOREWORD

Erected on an earthly throne,
She stands in queenly grace,
Her pillars uplifting to the sky,
As though she sees God's face.
She stands forever in our minds,
Dressed in mellow brick.
Her memory will e'er bring back
Our youth that dies so quick.

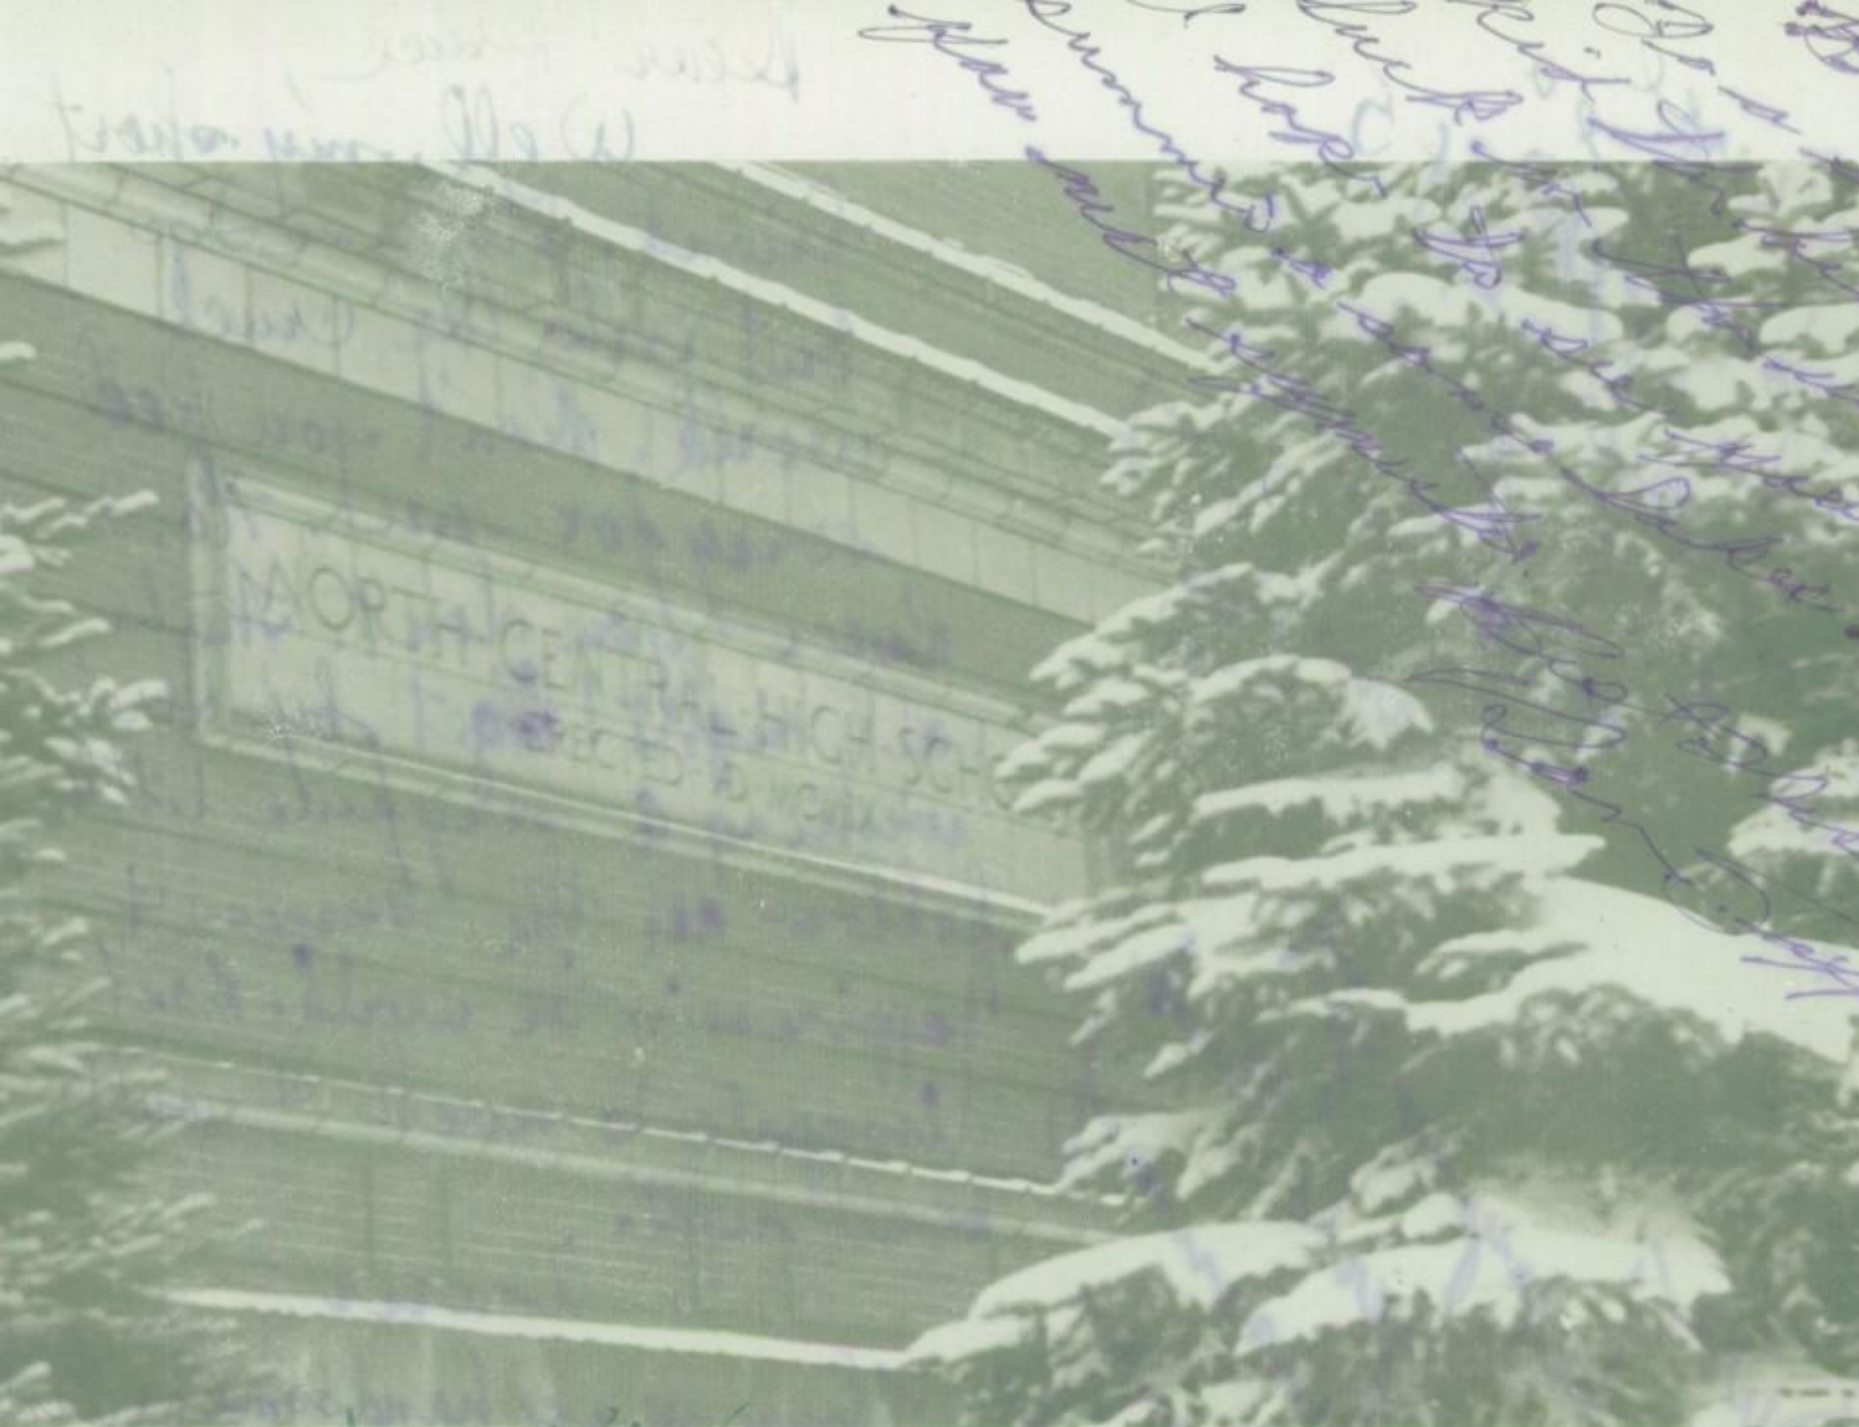

A building is only as strong and enduring as the things which give it life. Its beauty cannot be determined by material things. It needs love and understanding to remain more than a monument, a cold and lonely structure.

North Central is a living memorial, dedicated to youth and its ambition. Its halls echo the hopes and dreams, the tears and laughter of its sons and daughters.

It is to our building that we have turned for the theme of the 1950 Tamarack. Symbolic of sorrow, happiness, defeat, and victory, North Central high school will live forever in the hearts of its students.

Dear Bruce
Will know the best thru wishing a swell kid lots of luck. It has been fun knowing you here on at Logan. Will be good

THE WEST SIDE

JOSEPH TEWINKEL, Principal

ONCE more the Tamarack is in eager hands, adding one more chapter to the glorious history of North Central. It builds its theme around halls which for more than forty years have echoed to generations of fine young people.

It will be fun in coming years to dig out the 1950 Tamarack just to look back. Such retrospection inevitably will center in recalling friends of high school days and teachers who mixed social, recreational, and spiritual interests with sound instruction.

WALTER HAWES, Vice Principal

THE appearance of a new Tamarack marks a red letter day at North Central. For the staff, it is a reward for long hours of planning and work; for the student body, a book which is a valued record of your high school days.

North Central has many traditions established by the early graduating classes—good scholarship, good citizenship, athletic achievement, and outstanding publications. Continued success in the carrying out of these traditions is North Central's wish to each of you today.

I have really enjoyed knowing being in home room with you. I really think you do. I'm going to really miss you this summer, not seeing your beaming face coming in late every morning to and work at my dad's office and maybe go to play ten for a week. Come and see me sometime at work. Its Rod Electric (W. 24 Mission). I will never forget the day you to school with that lipstick on. I wonder who's it could be. I really do wish you and Claire would go back together again because she really is tops and so are you so you make a good couple. (See) Always start with well kid you are. Good luck & don't do anything I wouldn't.
lots and lots and lots of love
Georgia Anderson
P.S. Don't work too hard.

Preparing girls for future homemaking is the pleasant duty of the home economics department. Pictured in Miss Neuman's Clothing II class are Jo Ann Burns, Donalee Springer, Miss Neuman, Beverly Blandy and Leah Widman.

Mechanical drawing classes, prevocational work for boys interested in industrial arts, prepares students for wood and metal shop courses. Mr. Theodorson checks on Bob Slizer and Allan Shields in his first period class.

An analytical balance used by Merlyn Anderberg and Grace Horning is one of the many intriguing pieces of equipment that chemistry students have an opportunity to use.

Library reference work is undertaken by incoming students as part of their English course. The library, which contains over 10,000 volumes, is one of the best in the school system.

Mr. Jones prepares to show a movie to his first period U. S. History class. Motion pictures visually dramatize history, the arts, and sciences into interesting studies for students.

The art department prepares both those students who plan to make art their career and those who enjoy it merely as recreation in many of the fundamental types and techniques of art work. At right are Leona Weaver, Don Hergert and Peri Wagner.

Over twenty committees were organized by the S. R. A. and commissioned to investigate phases of school activity and suggest ideas for their embodiment in the constitution. These committees then turned their suggestions over to a central constitutional committee, whose duty it was to examine the recommendations and incorporate them where possible.

In the first weeks of the fall semester, the Tamarack staff, meeting daily, decided on "our building" as the theme for the 1950 Tamarack and began planning the sections of the book.

Dorothy Cosby and JB Hefferlin were co-editors; Grace Horning was art editor; Sunny Gilmore, Richard Guy and Beth Coe were associate editors; Don Hesselman, Dick Gustafson and Florence Coleman were business managers; and Maryellen Wilson, advertising manager. The staff was divided into four groups: Photographers, George Smith, adviser; artists, under Kenneth Mhyre's supervision; printing, Outstanding events, among them the establishment of the new student government, the State Basketball tournament, and the Doll Shop, have been included in the book. Service groups, events, and most of all the students, have had a part in determining its contents. The staff has endeavored to preserve the pleasant experiences not only of the activities but also of the class work which dominates school life. They hope that the 1950 Tamarack will prove for all its readers a valued record of the year's experiences.

direction of W. Stanley Taft, taking part in the operetta, Baccalaureate, and Commencement exercises.

Broadcasting from the Davenport hotel, presenting a program for Town Meeting, participating in the Music Festival and presenting the May concert were part of the choir's spring activities.

TEPEE LIGHTERS

The Tepee Lighters is one of North Central's newest musical groups. Members are selected from the choir by the director, W. Stanley Taft.

The "Lighters" were organized to fill the frequent requests coming in from various service groups for musical programs of a light nature.

They also made two appearances singing from the Davenport Hotel lobby over radio station KGA, and have appeared with the choir at numerous occasions throughout the year.

and boys' quartets, the choir, and Teepee Lighters added another accomplishment to their long line of commendable musical productions.

The orchestra, with a membership of twenty-five this year, has four vocal soloists, Arlene Gilbert, Bev Fanning, Janice Thompson, and Ron Saffle.

THE OPERETTA

Bizet's fiery "Carmen," after seventy-five years, is as taunting and alive as was its debut in the year 1875. "Carmen," a world-famous opera, was presented as the music department's thirty-eighth annual operetta in December under the direction of W. Stanley Taft, Miss Elsa Pinkham, and Robert Drumheller.

Janice Thompson, in the title role, played opposite romantic leads Ernest Knowles, Don Jose, a corporal in the Dragoons, and Ron Saffle, Escamillo, a debonair toreador.

The plot involves a smoldering love triangle which is constantly kindled into flame by the man-devouring gypsy girl—Carmen. She, flaunting love at numerous masculine admirers, uses their affection as a device to satisfy her heartless ego; only to discover she is playing with fire.

In the final scene her game with romance boomerangs—leaving her infatuated lovers, Don Jose and Escamillo, minus one warm blooded gypsy girl.

In the supporting cast were: Ron Hagadone, a captain of the Dragoons, Mary Alice Berry, Micaela, and Dorothy Mele, Frasquita, a gypsy friend of Carmen's.

Upper right: Childhood sweethearts, Don Jose, played by Ernest Knowles, and Micaela, Mary Alice Berry, complete the Spanish foursome.

Center: "Two's company; three's a crowd." Admiring the seductive Carmen in the tavern scene are Ron Hagadone and John Hocking, members of the Dragoon.

Below: Death releases Carmen. In a fit of jealousy Don Jose stabs his beloved Carmen, as she attempts to enter the bull ring to join the victorious toreador, Escamillo.

THORNTON WILDER'S "OUR TOWN"

"... 'Our Town' marks a high point in local high school dramatic effort."

This was the praise given to the dramatics department for its production of Thornton Wilder's unusual drama, "Our Town." The all-school play was presented in January under the direction of Bob Drumheller.

To allow the greatest imaginative co-operation of the audience, "Our Town" is written to be staged without scenery or properties. Narrated by the stage manager, the play examines the town of Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, and two of its families, the Webbs and the Gibbs. The three acts follow the lives of Emily Webb and George Gibbs from childhood, through first love, marriage, and death to the reckoning time—when Emily finds how useless it is to attempt to return to the living.

SENIOR PLAY—"LIFE WITH FATHER"

Redheads adorned the halls of North Central during the spring semester. They were not natural redheads, either.

The senior dramatics class, under the direction of Bob Drumheller, presented in May the rollicking comedy, "Life With Father," by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse. The outstanding play was adapted from Clarence Day's book on family incidents.

One of the many problems connected with its production was the fact that members of the Day family, around whom the play evolves, had to have red hair. It was decided that dying the hair would not only produce the desired effect but would also be good advertising in the halls of the school.

Members of the stage crew this year were Lafe Materne, Dick Rockstrum, Melvin Varner, Frank Wells, Warren Heber, Erwin Richardson, Stan Framstad, and Jack Frannan.

STAGE CREW

"Hey, Jim, dim the number 3 amber! Cut the booth and lower the blue cyc."

These are familiar phrases to the stage crew, for it is they who do a large part of the work in any North Central production.

In its first year under Vern Broadwell, the stage crew has completed an extremely busy season with the operetta, two plays, and the Doll Shop, plus its handling of lighting, scenery, and sound for all convocations and other stage productions. Numbering eleven, the stage crew works each day period 6 as a regular class.

THE VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

Ted Boyett and three newcomers to the faculty were the varsity football coaches this fall.

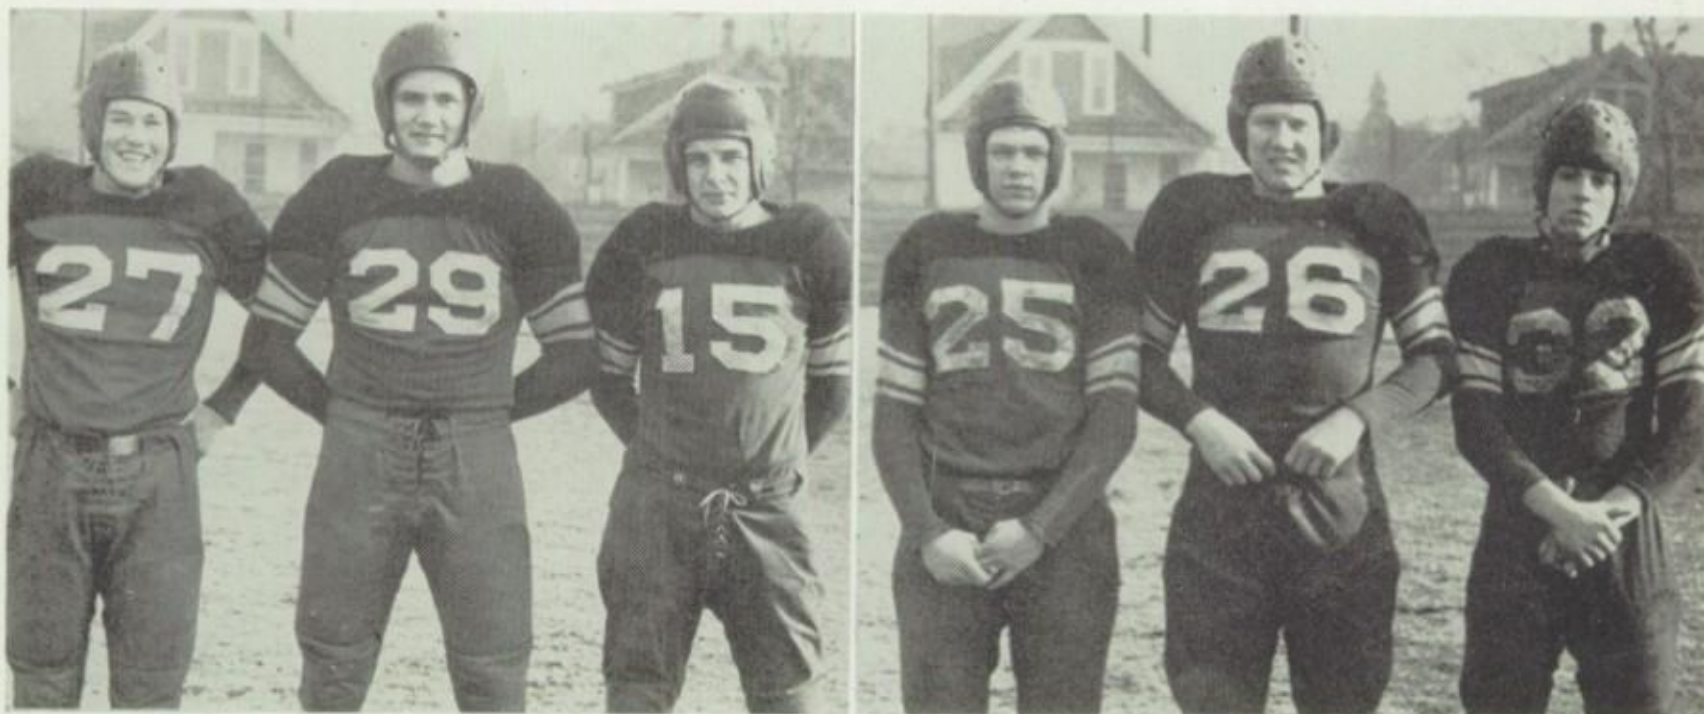

Ted Boyett, head football coach, played college ball at the University of Missouri and the University of New Mexico, where he lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track.

Arthur Boettcher, backfield coach, competed in football and track at Shurtleff college and football at Eastern Washington College of Education before coming to North Central.

Bill Whitaker, University of Missouri athlete, coached ends and tackles. He played end on the 1946 eleven which went to the Cotton Bowl. During his collegiate career he was also a member of the baseball squad.

Harry Finnegan tutored centers and guards. He attended, Columbia, St. Mary's, and the College of Puget Sound.

An inexperienced but aggressive North Central football team, who finished the 1949 season with a dismal 0-7-1 won-lost record, shows prospects of a brighter future as several promising players will be returning.

In the annual Vic Desert Merry-Go-Round, the Rogers Pirates amassed 26 points in a single quarter while holding the Indians scoreless. In the third quarter, the still jittery Tribe dropped a 13-0 contest to the Lewis and Clark Tigers, who scored two quick touchdowns before the Indians found themselves and began pushing the Bengals backwards.

to Kalispell for a preseason game the night following the Merry-Go-Round and were whipped by a larger and more experienced eleven, 32—0.

They opened their league schedule by absorbing a 27—0 shellacking at the hands of Lewis and Clark on the North Central playfield. In the second meeting between the two clubs, they played to a 6—6 standstill in the annual Shrine classic. The Tribe scored first when Chuck Gerlach intercepted a pass and galloped 65 yards to pay dirt.

The Indians fared the worst in their series with Rogers. The Pirates hung a 20—0 defeat on them in the opener, and then combined a powerful offense and rugged defense to bury the Braves 32—0 at Rogers.

Although the Indians displayed creditable power in both games against Gonzaga, the Bullpups dumped them twice by scores of 18-12 and 26-6, respectively. The first game was a thriller with the outcome still in doubt down to the final minutes. Chuck Gerlach threw two long touchdown passes to Bob Ytreeide for N. C.'s scores. Late in the fourth quarter of the second game, Gerlach tossed a pass to Keith Darling for North Central's only score.

In a post-season game at Enumclaw, near Seattle, the Tribe fell victim to the White River Hornets by a score of 20-6. The Indians' lone score was the result of a buck through center by Quarterback Jimmy Roberts.

Fullback Warren Heber received the honorary captain's award. The Buckley Inspirational trophy went to George Manos, all-city tackle, and all-city Halfback Chuck Gerlach was presented with the Ecker award.

Tutored by Al Manfred and Jake Malterner, the B squad finished the 1949 season with a fairly successful season record behind them.

Although the junior varsity won only two games, they made their alma mater proud of them. In the Lewis and Clark series, the JV's played two of their best games, and though the Tigers won the first game 20—13, the Indians roared back in their second meeting to down them 19—16.

In the Rogers series, the Pirates grabbed an 18—7 victory from the battling North Centralites after the latter had held them to a scoreless tie at the beginning of the season.

Standouts for the B squad during the season were Roy Hardin, Dale Kraeger, Bill Langdon, David Ensberg, James Sum-erlin, and John Tuft.

COACHES—Emery Watte and Bill Diedrick

Although the freshman team finished the 1949 season with only one win, they boast several good prospects for North Central's future varsities. Ronnie Layton, Dick Disney, James Toliver, Harry Perry, Bob Sleizer, Don Faraca, Elbert Benson, and Dick Fosness all shone for the freshman.

Under the direction of Bill Diedrick and Emery Watte, the Papooses turned in many good games in spite of the scores.

The Indian babes started the season in fine style with a 7-6 triumph over Mead; the next day they journeyed to Cheney where they lost a 7-6 thriller to Cheney Junior High. From here on out they just couldn't find themselves.

In city league competition, the frosh dropped successive contests to Rogers, Lewis and Clark, and Gonzaga by scores of 33-0, 21-0, and 14-0, respectively.

TED BOYETT, who coached the cagers to an undefeated city championship and seventh-place in the state tournament.

★ ★ ★ CITY LEAGUE CHAMPS

The 1949-50 varsity basketball team came through with North Central's first undefeated league record and city championship since 1930. The Warriors also went on to Seattle to gain seventh place in the state basketball tournament.

Three letterman regulars and a large group of good-looking prospects returned to greet Coach Ted Boyett in his second year at North Central. Lack of experience showed up in the Indians' preseason games as they won three while losing four; but they won eight straight in the league campaign to represent Spokane in the state tournament.

The Indians opened the season by dropping a 33-24 decision to the Washington State frosh. Invading Montana's Big Sixteen conference, they lost 50-41 to a Missoula outfit, but on the following night eked out a 43-42 win over the top-flight Helena Bengals. The Warriors dumped Kennewick, 48-38, and Everett, 49-41, but slumped during their trip through the Okanogan Valley to lose two five-pointers to Omak and Chelan.

Opening league play against Lewis and Clark, the Indians spurred in the final moments to down the Tigers 47-37. Coach Boyett's crew took a 21-17 halftime lead but the Tigers overtook them at 36-all with four minutes remaining. The Tribe then put on their splurge until the gun sounded. In the second meeting, after the score had been tied at the halftime, 21-21, the Tribe put up a great defense for a 37-25 victory.

Valley Eagles to be the easiest prey in the league. The Eagles bowed, 46-29, in the first contest and couldn't quite match the Indians' ability in the second clash and fell victim to N. C., 43-34.

Gonzaga threw the season's biggest scare at the Indians in their first meeting. They displayed a stubborn defense that kept the Tribe confused throughout. With the Pups leading 22-21, and with only one second remaining, Burt Lucas canned a two-pointer for a thrilling N. C. win. The Bullpups proved to be no team to reckon with the Red and Black in the second game as Coach Boyett used subs freely for a 44-31 triumph.

Against Rogers, the Indians played a couple of thrilling ball games. The Tribe outraced the Pirates, 50-45, in the initial contest and led all the way in the second clash to win 44-34.

Coach Al Manfred's newly organized junior varsity finished their season with an impressive record of six victories against two defeats. The tribe played a home and home series with four schools. They split with St. Maries and Ritzville and dumped Mead and Deer Park twice.

Don Fleming, Bill McKay, Virg Du-chow, Jack Vill, and Dick Stacy were standouts who should be top contenders for a starting berth on the varsity next year.

After a shaky start, the continually improving B squad, took second place in the city league, winning six and losing two. Glenn Meinke and Jerry Mason were the top scorers for the Bees, whose season record stood at twelve victories and five setbacks. Aggressiveness plus talent equally distributed throughout the team was greatly responsible for their success.

The frosh wound up in a second place tie with Gonzaga in city league competition with four wins and two losses. They lost only to West Valley, the league leaders, and Havermale. The crew boasted a seasonal record of seven wins and four losses. In non-league play, they downed Cheney junior high, Cheney frosh, and St. Maries while losing to the Hillyard Boosters and Mead. Jim Tinnell, Dick Fosness, Ken Blackman, Jim Nordby sparked the squad.

 A. A. Manfred, Head Baseball Coach

A new coach, eight returning lettermen, and lots of aggressiveness was the picture of the 1950 edition of the varsity baseball squad as practices got under way in the early spring.

Al Manfred took over the reins from retiring coach Del Jones. Bill Diedrick assisted him.

Returning lettermen were Dave Strawn, catcher; Jack Fiskness, first base; Jim Gillogly, second base; Virg Duchow, third base and center field; Dick Stacy, outfield; John Edwards and Tom O'Leary, pitchers; and Chuck Gerlach, catcher and outfield.

Don Flemming slides safely into third base as Dick Bostrom awaits the ball. Third-base coach is Virg Duchow.

Jim Gillogly sacrifices Don Flemming home from third base while Chuck Gerlach, catcher, waits for the throw-in.

TOP—First Basemen: Bill Powell, Jack Fiskness.

Mickey Rizzuto, Buzz Burton, Chuck Gerlach, and Dave Strawn were competing for the catcher's position and gave the Indians plenty of reserve strength in that department.

John Edwards and Tom O'Leary led the Indian mound staff. Other contenders were Ed Green, Tom Joy, Bill Flynn, Bill Zink, Jerry Walton, Dale (Lefty) Kraeger, and Gerry Christenson.

Bill Powell and Jack Fiskness were first base candidates, while Jerry Gross, Jack Vill, and Jim Gillogly vied for the second base position.

Third basemen included Virg Duchow, Don Flemming, and Dick Bostrom. Glen Meinke, Dale Mitchell, and Jim Poole battled it out for shortstop, the only infield position without a returning letterman.

Competing for the various outfield positions were Dick Smith, Keith Darling, Don Brown, Bill Flynn, Chuck Gerlach,

As we go to press, the team looks weakest in the pitching department. Coach Manfred commented that if his hurling staff comes through, "We will have as good a team as any in the league."

The Tribe boasts a good fielding and hard-hitting club. They have worked hard and showed lots of hustle in early season workouts.

The Indians got their first taste of competition by playing West Valley twice. They whipped the Eagles 9—3 in the first contest, but the Valley boys came back strong in the second game to slip by the Braves 2—1. Coach Manfred played his entire squad in both games.

League play opened April 20 with the Indians meeting Lewis and Clark on the Tiger's diamond. North Central had no home games as the playfield was being reseeded.

B BASEBALL

Fifty-eight "B" squad baseball candidates reported to Coach Harry O. Finnegan this spring as they began preparing for a rugged schedule.

The team had many good prospects and was deep in every position. Looking good in early season practices were Bill Hoagland, Harry Perry, John Cozzetto, Gary Hetherington, Jack Webb, Bruce Grandstaff, Jim Webbert, Jerry Christenson, John Tufts, Ken Curry, Bill Frazier, Bob Sleizer, Jerry Walton, Jerry Larson, Bill Davis, and Jim Howell.

The fact that most of the players are sophomores shows promise for the varsity and other junior varsity teams a year or two hence.

FRESH SQUAD

Approximately 40 candidates answered Coach Emery Watte's call for freshman baseball in the spring.

The squad practiced in the gym during the early part of the season but moved to Cannon park when good weather prevailed. Their home games were also played at Cannon park.

The starting line-up consisted of Don Faraca, Lee Charest, Robert Olson, Orville Poole, Ronnie Layton, Bill Lennard, Dick Fosness; and pitchers Wayne Breeden, Derald Hampton; catchers Bronson Mastne, Captain Dick Disney.

League play included two games with each of the following: Gonzaga, Rogers, Lewis and Clark, and Libby.

Emery Watte, mentor of the B squad, also coached freshman football and B squad basketball teams.

TRACK AND

North Central's track team, backed by five returning lettermen, have been out for their fourth consecutive city championship this spring. They captured their third straight last year with impressive wins over all their opponents.

Returning lettermen were Mickey McHargue in the 100 and 220-yard dashes; Don Barth in the 440; Jim Roberts and Jack Fruit in the mile; and Don Shaw in the 220 low hurdles.

The Indians powered their way to first place in the W. S. C. Invitational Indoor track meet at Pullman in their opening meet. They edged by Rogers 56-48 in opening league competition and a week later downed Gonzaga 75-29.

CROSS COUNTRY

The North Central cross-country team captured their second straight city championship and their third in four years this fall.

After opening the season by whipping Gonzaga 17-40, the Indian harriers rolled over Rogers and Lewis and Clark by successive scores of 17-44 and 26-30.

The Indians won the all-city meet very handily. It was in this contest that Jack Fruit shaved 12 seconds from the record he himself had set the week before.

North Central's cross-country future looks bright as Fruit, Don Shaw, Bob Wirsch, Hal Vazanko, Bob Newland, and Neil McKeever will return to school next fall.

The "Thinclad Trio" of Don Barth, Jack Fruit, and Bob Newland practice the mile run in preparation for a dual meet.

TENNIS

With only two lettermen returning from last year's championship squad, Coach Ernest L. Hix' tennis team undertook the big task of defending their title with the opening of the season.

Darrell Kuelpman and Bill Hogan are the returnees, with Barry Smith, Bob Mudge, Louis Starner, Maurice Miles, and Jim Weeks among the likely prospects.

The Indians faced Rogers in their opening league match March 3. All home matches were played at Shadle park instead of the school courts. Double round-robin matches were played with each team in the league—Rogers, Gonzaga, and Lewis and Clark.

Darrell Kuelpman (left) and Barry Smith were two of the mainstays of the tennis team in their bid for the city championship.

BOYS' GOLF

At the beginning of the season, prospects looked good for Coach Hawes and the golf team. Eight lettermen returned from last year's squad which had captured the city championship in an undefeated season.

The nucleus of the team was centered around Carl and Rod Funseth, Frank Wells, Don Weaver, Gordon Anderson, Ward Sligh, Jim Norton, and Jim Tefft, captain.

The Tribe practiced every school day at the Downriver golf course, preparing for this year's city league competition. With the creation of a Rogers golf team, a four-school, six-game schedule was adopted. The opening match of the season, played against Lewis and Clark, found the Indians winning 14 to 4.

Digits tingle as brother swings. Rod and Carl Funseth try a practice shot.

A bigger and better Sports-for-All program greeted participants this year as several new activities were added to the agenda.

Under the direction of Roy I. Carriker and Warren J. Riopelle, the intramural activities gave much enjoyment to those interested in basketball, wrestling, boxing, tumbling, swimming, ping pong, Q-croquet, softball, and western dancing. Flag football was dropped as there was no field on which to play.

The junior 3 basketball team won top honors as they posted an undefeated season against stiff competition. Members of this team were Marvin Lanphere, Vern Olsen, Jerry Gross, James Loski, Ken Abby, Paul Carlson, Ed Purdue, and David Ross.

Boxing and wrestling was classified into weight departments, and the champion had to defeat all challengers in order to retain his top honor. Exhibition matches in both events highlighted the Dad-Son Smoker, held in the gym in February.

Championships in tumbling and swimming were decided at the Smoker. The former event was won by Dick Armfield with Stan Framstad a close second. In swimming, John Tuft captured the 40-yard sidesroke; the 40-yard freestyle was won by Ed Johnson; 40-yard backstroke, Willis Benson; and John Tuft won the 40-yard breaststroke. A relay team consisting of Willis Benson, Milo Clark and Ed Johnson were victorious in the 120-yard relay.

Ping pong and Q-croquet were popular with many students. Mr. Carriker supervised these, as he did a dancing program held on Fridays after school in the Totem In.

Softball teams organized after spring vacation under the direction of Mr. Riopelle completed a year of popular activities.

GIRLS'

Tennis

The girls' varsity tennis team defeated Rogers and Lewis and Clark 15-0 and 10-5, respectively, to recapture the city net championship for the fall semester. The girls practiced every Monday and Wednesday under the instruction of Miss Elsa Pinkham. Scores of practice sets were kept on file, and the girls were ranked according to these records.

Joyce Lee was captain for the first semester; managers were Shirley Feeder, Jeri Kippen and Carol Slosser. Captain for the spring semester was Joyce Byrne. Barbara DeFeyer worked with the other managers when Shirley Feeder was graduated.

Golf

The fall season saw eighteen girls play golf at Downriver golf course every Tuesday and Thursday under the instruction of Miss Wilhelmine Timm.

Donna Moe was captain for the fall semester, and Shirley Lambert was manager. Clarice Barth was captain for the spring semester, with Louise Waugh as manager.

Last fall the girls defeated Lewis and Clark, the only other school in the city with a girls' golf team, $21\frac{1}{2}$ to $8\frac{1}{2}$, thus bringing the city championship back to North Central.

Intramural tournaments were held during both golf seasons. Players were ranked according to the outcome of these matches.

BASKETBALL

Nine teams competed for the basketball championship this year. The sophomores, freshmen, and juniors were divided into three and two teams respectively, because of the large turnout.

Sophomores, captained by Helen Tollefson and Nancy Springer, captured first place, with Doris Nelson's senior A's, only one-half game behind them, taking second.

Other team captains in the tournament were: Freshman 1, Gwen Upp; freshman 2, Kae Andre; sophomore 2, Leah Widman; sophomore 3, Pat Schrader; junior 1, JoAnn Freeman; junior 2, Mary Penna; and senior B, Joan Cochran.

Marlene Bartlett and Virginia Coberly were managers, and Miss Ruth Hetherington directed the tournament.

Eight volleyball teams were chosen at the first volleyball turnout early in January, with Miss Ruth Hetherington in charge. Carolyn Crowe and Doris Loan were co-managers.

The winner of the round-robin tournament was the Screwballs captained by Peggy Kookken with 7 wins and 0 losses. Coming in second were Sunny Steele's Volley Wobblers with 6 wins and 1 loss. Jerri Valliquette's Netterettes came in third with 5 wins and 2 losses.

Other teams and their captains were: Barbara McCarty, Juniors Jumpers; Janet Jones, Speedsters; Lois Kooistra, Checks; and Phyllis Luschei, Raging Romperettes. The only senior team was the Senior Sluggers with Patsy Lindberg as captain.

JoAnn Cogley and Margene Lang were managers this season.

SWIMMING

Under the direction of Miss Pinkham, twenty-one girls turned out for swimming every Monday after school. Frances Bennett and Leta Cook were co-chairmen of these after-school workouts.

A swimming meet was held during the spring. Included in this meet was the 220-yard free style; 50-yard free style; 100-yard breaststroke; 100-yard backstroke; 100-yard sidestroke; and underwater swim. The seniors won the meet with 35 points, followed by the juniors with 19 points. Kathleen Bigham paced the senior victory by breaking two school records and chalking up 30 out of the 35 points. LaVonne Snider led the juniors with 16 points.

"On your mark, get set, go!"

SKATING

Boys and girls who had period six free and who were interested in skating enjoyed trips to the ice arena every Wednesday and Friday this winter. Transportation was provided and each paid a twenty-five cent fee at the arena.

The skaters learned forward and backward circus steps, three turn, inside mohawk, spirals, two foot spin, outside and inside forward rolls, figure eight, pivots and the Dutch waltz. Miss Wilhelmine Timm taught them jumps. Miss Timm, along with Miss Elsa Pinkham and Miss Muriel Allison, had charge of the group, several of whom were in the Silver Blades club "Ice Parade of 1950" this spring.

SOFTBALL

Softball was the last interclass sport which the girls gym department sponsored this spring. With Miss Ruth Hetherington in charge, the girls played every Wednesday and Thursday morning before school. Teams were chosen and captains elected by the different classes. The goal was the title for the class teams.

The girls' gym department had, as usual, a varied schedule. In the gym classes during the winter season, the girls learned various types of dancing and new steps including the tour jete' and arabasque. This dancing was taught by Miss Pinkham and came in handy for Doll Shop. The girls also learned warm-up exercises and something about health through the health reports they wrote out.

Late in May, the annual track meet was held. All girls taking gym could and were encouraged to turn out. In 1924, Margaret Hodgins threw a baseball 214 feet, 8 inches and her record has never been equaled. Elizabeth Huerlin's record high jump of 4 feet, 8 inches still stands from 1943.

Besides the work in the regular gym classes and interclass competition, the tenth biennial Doll Shop was sponsored by the gym department. Miss Elsa Pinkham, who heads the department, with nearly 300 people in the cast, turned out a wonderful production.

Ramona (Casey) Shaffer takes a hefty swing—but misses during softball practice. Watching the play are: Margaret Craigen, Gloria Green, and Charlotte Morrison.

THE DEBATE TEAM

"Resolved, That the President of the United States should be elected by a direct vote of the people," was the debate proposition this year.

The team's first intramural competition came in the Lewis and Clark nondecision tournament, where the high school teams of Spokane and its immediate vicinity met not to win but merely to feel out the cases of their opponents and to strengthen their own.

In the next few weeks, the Northeast Debate league, consisting of the following schools, was organized: West Valley, Central Valley, Marycliff, Gonzaga, Rogers, Davenport, North Central, Colville and Mead. For the rest of the semester these schools met each other weekly and engaged in two decision debates in each school. The results of these debates were tabulated and pointed toward the winning of a grand trophy. Ultimately, the trophy was jointly shared by Gonzaga, West Valley and North Central.

The advent of the second semester heralded the opening of the more grueling debates—the tournaments. The first was at Whitworth college, February 18. All four North Central teams made the semifinals but they all lost, placing N. C. third in that meet.

Then the team traveled to the twin cities of Lewiston and Clarkston, debated for two days, and also placed third there. The last tournament was at Gonzaga, March 16-18. North Central's only triumph was Dick Greenwood's placing in the extemporaneous finals.

Following is a list of the teams: Dick Greenwood and Marvin Lanphere. Cliff Lunneborg and Frank Storey, Dick Gustaf-

Life With Father

The play takes place in the late 1880's at at the Day home in New York city. Vinnie's juggling of the family finances, to say nothing of the maid problem, keeps father in a bad mood most of the time. The activities of the four Day sons supply a lot of action to the play.

Clarence Jr.'s love affair with young Mary Skinner provides the romantic touch. The pompous minister, the Reverend Dr. Lloyd, is enlisted by Vinnie to aid in getting father baptized; but he finds when father makes up his mind, it takes more than well-aimed sermons to change it.

Properties were a real headache for the cast, as 162 items were included in the prop list. The play is seldom presented in high schools and required special permission from the authors.

The major task of the constitutional committee and the S. R. A. officers was not, however, the integrating of committee suggestions, but rather the decision as to whether to establish a one or two-house legislature. Although many high schools consulted by the S. R. A. reported that their law-making body consisted merely of one house, the committee recommended that two houses, both having the same powers, one consisting of home room representatives, the other of class representatives, student body and League and Federation officers, be established.

The constitution was so drawn up and presented to the student body to be voted on article by article, and section by section, at the beginning of the spring semester. With the exception of three articles, all passed on the first ballot, and the revised three were then accepted.

The first task under the new government was the setting up of an election commission to direct the first student body election in North Central's history. After several weeks of nominating, petitioning, and screening, primary and general elections were held and after student body officers and senators were elected, both houses began functioning as provided for. The members of the House of Representatives had been elected in January to serve as a spring S. R. A. until the constitution was approved.

The length of office of senators, representatives, and officers, was, however, short, as only a little more than two months remained in the semester. Elections for fall semester officers and senators were held at the end of the year.

Sunny Gilmore, editor of The News, won this scholarship in January. News staff members also belong to North Central's Edward R. Responsible for the work of the editorial staff are the managing editor, news editor, associate editor, editorial page editor, and the sports editor. The managing editor supervises all phases of publication of The News, while the news editor is in charge of complete coverage on beats, measurement of inches and pictures. Band

A new high in enrollment was reached in the fall with 155 boys signed up. The spring semester saw 145 boys eager to participate in the many activities of the organization.

The marching season got under way with the band participating in the annual Merry-Go-Round game at Ferris field and in the stunt "Love's Old Sweet Song," which they presented along with the Red Feathers. They also presented a stunt at each of the games held on the N. C. playfield.

Marching nearly two miles, the band added greatly to the Balloon parade which was held in November.

The 49th formal concert was presented February 14 and 16 in the school auditorium. Proceeds from this performance helped in the uniform expansion program in which the band has made definite progress, adding enough coats and hats to supply the entire membership. Sleeve emblems have been added to the uniforms.

In May, the band made its 17th trip to the Washington State Apple Blossom festival at Wenatchee, where it participated in the huge parade and presented several concerts. As in past years, highest honors were brought back from the festival.

Spokane's annual Lilac parade saw the North Central band in the line of march along with other bands from throughout the Northwest. The Memorial day parade also featured the band.

The 50th formal concert was presented May 25 with a student matinee preceding it. Proceeds from the concert were also added to the uniform fund.

The hockey season at the Ice Arena was officially opened with the music of the Pep band in the background. In April they journeyed to Havermale for a program of popular music.

The tenth biennial Doll Shop saw several members of the Pep Band re-organized into an orchestra with the addition of a violin from the school orchestra. North Central basketball rooters heard the Pep Band at four games during the season. A program was presented for the Rotary club at one of their weekly luncheons.

The final win over Rogers gave North Central an undefeated league record. In two nonleague games against strong Idaho frosh, N. C. lost 48-38, and 39-31.

North Central drew Lincoln of Tacoma as her first opponent in the state basketball tournament. The Indians held off a Lincoln rally to squeeze out a 32-30 victory. With the referees calling 59 fouls—34 against N. C.—the Tribe fell as the second-round victims of an undefeated Lincoln of Seattle, losing 48-33.

The Warriors fought back to down Highline's Pirates 42-32, to go into the seventh or fourth place depending upon the outcome of the Walla Walla game. Having been held to a halftime, 19-19 tie, the Blue Devils handed the Indians seventh place by unleashing a Captain Kenny Benshoof received two trophies at the award convocation—one for the best free throw record of any team member, and the captain's trophy, presented by the Warriors. The Spokane Daily Chronicle presented the team with a new perpetual trophy, which will go each year to the school winning the city basketball crown.

Doug Jydstrup was chosen on the second all-state team and Ken Benshoof received honorable mention in Seattle; Jydstrup, Benshoof, and Dick Edwards were first-string choices on both city papers' all-city teams. Other team members were: Bill Klise, Burt Lucas, Rod Walker, Gene Whiting, Darrel Keulpman, John Edwards, Charles Chandler, Don Fleming, Bill McKay, and Merlyn Anderberg, team manager.

Doll Shop

The leads, who wrote their own script, based their lines upon the buying-selling theme. This "shop" dialogue is the cue or introduction for various dance and song solos along with the group routines.

The youthful shop owners, Jeanie, Mickey, and Ron found the key to happiness behind the doors of their enchanted shop; the Scandihoovian family, hayseed still fresh in their hair, found the bliss of domestic tranquility, while Joan and her lively sister, Susie, discovered a doll—and something more. Johnie Johnson, the roving sailor experienced heartache and then love within the shop's compelling atmosphere and Mr. Fixit, the cantankerous old janitor, wound up with his dustmop, an allergy to livin' and a crick in his ever-aching back.

I really am glad, cause you are a real little hay around the corner!

Of kidding I really think you are a darling little boy with a wonderful personality.

Now if you were about 10 inches taller
you could really go out and hustle but anyway we can still have fun together.

The good old the summer need full time to the much.

That's all I have to say.

Love,
Dorothy
P.S. I hope you like this to your place.
